YORKTOWN ARTS FOUNDATION

CAMERA TO CANVAS EXHIBIT

April 4-28, 2023

CALL FOR ARTISTS

Exhibit basics: The purpose of this exhibit is to pair photographers with other artists to portray the photographer's image in another medium. Each photograph chosen by an artist will be rendered in their medium and be displayed alongside the enlarged framed photograph in the exhibit.

This exhibit is open to all current Yorktown Arts Foundation members. Each member photographer can bring in up to three (4 x 6-5 x 7) photographic prints to be considered by other member artists (name of photograph, name of photographer and contact information should be on the back of each print). Each photograph can be chosen by one 2D and one 3D artist or jeweler. Any photograph submitted must be professionally presented in a larger format, matted and framed to gallery standards for the exhibit itself.

Important dates:

January 14-20: Member photographers can submit up to three 4 x 6" – 5 x 7" photographic prints for consideration. These photographs will be kept by the artist for reference and submitted with their inventory at drop off.

January 21, 2022 – Early photograph choice for those who attend the annual meeting.

Week of January 22 – 28 during business hours: Artist's may choose a photo for the Camera to Canvas Exhibit in April. Each photo can only be chosen by one 2D artist and one 3D or jewelry artist. Call the gallery before coming to choose a photograph to be sure there are still prints available.

Drop off: Items from both photographers and artists must be dropped off at On the Hill Gallery on Friday, March 31st and Saturday, April 1st during business hours.

Reception: April 15th, 5:00-7:00pm

Pick-up: Saturday, April 29th and Sunday April 30th during business hours
